Iran Stone Exhibiton 2024

In this Exhibition

NATURAL STONE

With plenty stone quarries, Iran is one of the most important zones , which is unique both in terms of the number of quarries and the variety of stones such as marbles, onyxes, granites, limestones , etc. Iran Stone Exhibition, as the most important stone event in Iran, is a good opportunity to know about these materials.

MACHINERY & EQUIPMENT

Every year, next to the building stones, the latest technologies related to stone extraction and producing machines are exhibited, which provides an opportunity for industry activists to get to know uptodate technologies and each other.

CONSUMABLES

Consumables and necessities are another part of the Iran stone exhibition, which includes resins, diamond saw blades, abrasives, etc .

SERVICES & MEDIA

In today's, more than before every industry needs connection to other industries and specialties, so a part of the exhibition is dedicated to services such as media, logistic and etc.
